

Wednesday 4 May 2016

Christopher Atkinson spoke to guests about the upcoming Business Resource Efficiency Programme which will offer free reviews & advice and grants to reduce energy usage, costs & carbon.

Neil Birt spoke about the implementation of Bridgnorth Aluminium's Suds project and updated on their Biodiversity site activities including progress on their hay meadow site.

Christopher Doubleday, CMR Consultants

CMR worked with Stadco to implement their Kaizen Energy Reduction programme in 2014. Chris spoke about how the training programme ran, opportunities were identified and how Kaizen can be implemented in the workplace for future energy reduction

Mark Gilbert, Emerald Trading

Mark Gilbert provided an update on the plastics recycling industry

For further information on any of the environmental topics discussed please email telfordbesst@gmail.com