

Dr Simon Slater talked about the Low Carbon Economy, work around the West Midlands Combined Authority and how this can link into the Marches LEP

Mark Thomson, Managing Director of AceOn Group, is a leader in the field of solar battery technologies and will showcase new ways of working with these products, and talk on a wider basis about Environmental Technology

What is Environmental Technology?

Paul Hinkins, TBB Chair & Vice-Chair of the Marches Local Enterprise Partnership (MLEP) will present the importance of the Environmental Sector and how it links into the MLEP priorities. One of the key sector priorities of the MLEP is Low Carbon.

Andy Whyte is one of 3 Sector Champions for Telford Business Board all of whom work in different areas of the Environmental Sector. Currently these Sector Champions are investigating ways to bring an Environmental Centre of Excellence to Telford and Andy presented about this project.

Centre of Excellence for Sustainability Proposal

For further information on any of the environmental topics discussed please email telfordbesst@gmail.com